Voting Procedures

- a. An individual must be recognized by the chair before obtaining the floor to make a motion
 - Member raises their hand to signify they would like to speak
 - Chairperson recognizes member (saying name or nodding)
- b. Motion
 - Once an individual has the floor, he or she may introduce a topic for discussion by beginning with a statement like 'I would like to discuss...'. From this point until the topic has been voted on, all discussion focuses on the question.
 - The chairperson asks for discussion. Each participant may speak to the issue twice. Once discussion is complete, the chair puts the motion.
 - An individual must officially make a formal proposal or motion, beginning with the statement, "I move..."
 - Another individual must second the motion by saying, "I second the motion." This indicates that he or she agrees, in principle, and that the proposal should be discussed.
 - Once a motion is made and seconded, the chair states the motion, so everyone is clear on what is being proposed. The chairperson then conducts the vote by asking for those in favour and those opposed. The vote is conducted by a show of hands
 - A majority is needed to pass the motion.

Meeting Norms

RBPS students and staff are guided by the principle of BE YOUR BEST in all areas of respect, responsibility, and safety. The following norms are intended to ensure everyone has an opportunity to develop a clear understanding of discussion topics. These rules ensure that the traditional principles of equality, harmony and efficiency are kept. Meeting participants and leaders commit to:

- Treat everyone with respect. We will express our opinions responsibly, focusing on the issues and not on personal differences, and speak both honestly and kindly. The rest of the norms are related to this one.
- Not interrupt each other. We recognize that we all interrupt at times by mistake or to build on other statements. However, we will strive to allow each person the space to finish his or her thoughts.
- Engage each other's thoughts, ideas and opinions. We recognize the value and richness of a meeting when everyone has a chance to participate. This norm also includes gracious acceptance of opinions different from our own. Every member has rights equal to every other member.
- Stay focused on the topic under discussion. We will stay focused on the agreed upon topics. Only one topic will be considered a time. Child or classroom specific discussions will occur upon booking an appointment with school administration.

Annual Report

 - a summary of council's activities for the year
 - a financial statement
 - copies of the minutes of each meeting
- b. The School Council Annual Report shall be available to all concerned members of the school community by contacting administration.
